

Here, as elsewhere, speed=efficiency. In case of alarm, the security guard goes up as soon as possible. If the outbreak appears to be of criminal origin, our agent in continuous contact with a central alarm (approved by the SPFI), will call the police. Under the procedures established with the client, it will be called by the central protective measures possible. In all cases, a report will be written by the agent.

